"Mother visited the family while they lived in Clay Centre, Kan. They are scattered about in Pottawottamie, Co., Kan."

J. W. Lindsay, Nov. 27, 1894. Another descendant, writes:

"They all lived in Wayne Co., O. Their P. O. would be Mt. Eaton. Mary married a Mr. Forney, and died before 1852. Wm. went boating to N. O., and was never heard from. Their father was Wilkason McDonald; he was killed by the bursting of a boiler in a steam grist mill he was operating, when the children were small; their mother reared and educated them; they were smart and good children."
