

277. SAMUEL HENRY STOCKETT, the third child and second son of Lucy Elizabeth Holt and Samuel Henry Stockett, was b. on his father's plantation, nine miles from Woodville, Miss.; m. April 6th, 1893, in Richmond, Va., by the Rev. Moses Hoge, to Janie Pleasants Carrington Nichols, dau. of H. B. Nichols and Willie Carrington. They reside in New Orleans, La.

[Ninth Generation]. Children:

283. i. Juliet Elizabeth Stockett; b. New Orleans, La., Nov. 14, 1894; d. New Orleans, La., Mar. 25, 1895.

265. iv. WILLIAM WHITE HOLT, the fourth child and second son of Juliet White and Dr. David Holt, was b. in Woodville, Miss., Nov. 2d, 1833, and d. unm. in New Orleans, La., Sept. 2d, 1855. He was brilliant and eloquent to a remarkable degree, and d. just as he had received his license as an attorney and commenced the practice of his profession.

267. vi. DR. JOSEPH HOLT, the sixth child and fourth son of Juliet White and Dr. David Holt, was b. in New Orleans, La., Jan. 10th, 1839; m. Belle Wood, dau. of Granville Wood and Elizabeth Berry of Kentucky, in New Orleans, Oct. 16th, 1873.

Dr. Joseph Holt is a practicing physician of high standing in his native city, and the originator of the system of "Maritime Sanitation," which has for many years secured to New Orleans, and the entire valley of the Mississippi, immunity from yellow fever and other imported diseases. During the entire war he served as a surgeon in the Confederate Army.

[Eighth Generation]. Children:

284. Alfred Granville Holt.

285. Ethel Holt; d. in infancy.

269. viii. DAVID ELDRED HOLT, the eighth child and fifth son of Juliet White and Dr. David Holt, was b. in Wilkinson Co., Miss., Nov. 27th, 1843; m. Mary Edith Therrell, dau. of John B. Therrell and Jane Dunlap, in Woodville, Miss., Dec. 10th, 1868, the Rev. Thos. W. Brown officiating clergyman. He resides in New Orleans, La.

David E. Holt is an able, earnest, pious clergyman of the Episcopal Church, though unable to devote his whole time to the ministry, and has only taken deacon's orders. His occupa-