

friendships to the last—and a consistent member of the M. E. Church. Mrs. Maria Tunnell survives, living in Carrollton, Ill.

[Ninth Generation]. Children:

327. i. William Albertus Tunnell; b. Greenfield, Ill., Nov. 2, 1877; d. Greenfield, Ill., Oct. 4, 1892.

328. ii. Ross Augustus Tunnell; b. Fairbury, Neb., Aug. 25, 1879; l. Carrollton, Ill.

311. ii. SARAH ANN ALLEN, the second child and second dau. of Caroline Henderson and George W. Allen, was b. near Whitehall, Ill., Aug. 14th, 1830; m. Joseph Howard Gray, son of Joseph Gray and Gertrude Hubbard, of North Carolina, then of Macoupin Co., Ill., at Greenfield, Ill., Oct. 9th, 1855, the Rev. James B. Corrington officiating clergyman. They reside in Greenfield, Ill.

Mrs. Gray was educated at the Illinois Female College, Jacksonville, Ill. After marriage they resided in Alton, Ill., for several years, Mr. Gray holding a prominent position on "The Alton Courier," then a leading paper in the State. In 1857 they moved to Greenfield, where they have since resided, Mr. Gray having been continuously engaged in the occupation of druggist for forty years. They have always given their active support to the M. E. Church, of which they have been members nearly 50 years.

313. iv. HARRIET ELIZABETH ALLEN, the fourth child and fourth dau. of Caroline Henderson and George W. Allen, was b. in Greenfield, Ill., July 13th, 1834; m. Edward D. Sweeney, in the same place, Nov. 5th, 1862, the Rev. Thos. J. Bryant officiating clergyman. She d. in Rock Island, Ill., Mar. 20th, 1889.

Mrs. Harriet E. Sweeney completed her education at the Illinois Female College, Jacksonville, and subsequently taught several terms in the Rock Island, Ill., public schools. Mr. Sweeney graduated at Alleghany College, Meadville, Pa., and came West, and engaged also in teaching in the Rock Island public schools. After a course of legal study he was admitted to that profession, and has been a leading member of the Rock Island County Bar since 1860. Mrs. Sweeney's home, after marriage, was in Rock Island, Ill., where she lived a model life, as wife, mother, and member of society. Her character was admired by all. From childhood she was a convert to Christianity, the practice of which in its deepest significance was al-