

ways her delight. Of an attractive nature, all with whom she came in social contact felt her influence for good. The Methodist Episcopal was the Church of her choice, but her many acts of kindness, love and charity were bestowed on all, regardless of creed. She died after a year of much suffering, and was followed to her last rest by a large concourse of sincere friends.

[Eighth Generation]. Children:

329. i. Mary Sweeney; b. Rock Island, Ill., June 12, 1864; d. Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 13, 1865.
330. ii. Edward Allen Sweeney; b. Rock Island, Ill., June 26, 1866; l. Rock Island, Ill.
331. iii. Amy Sweeney; b. Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 26, 1869; m. Fred Standish Kenfield, Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 23, 1894; l. Chicago, Ill.
332. iv. Howard Miles Sweeney (twin); b. Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 3, 1874; d. Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 29, 1874.
333. v. William Jackson Sweeney (twin); b. Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 3, 1874; l. Evanston, Ill.

331. iii. AMY SWEENEY, the third child and second dau. of Harriet Elizabeth Allen and Edward D. Sweeney, was b. in Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 26th, 1869; m. Fred Standish Kenfield, of Chicago, in Rock Island, Oct. 23d, 1894, the Rev. F. W. Merrill officiating clergyman. They reside in Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Kenfield's studies in the City High School and the Monticello Female Seminary, at Godfrey, Ill., were supplemented by extensive travel and musical studies, under some of the ablest instructors. Fred Standish Kenfield is the junior member of the publishing house of Windsor & Kenfield, Chicago, Ill., where since 1888 he has been engaged in the publication of trade journals.

[Ninth Generation]. Children:

334. i. Ruby Kenfield; b. Chicago, Ill., Dec. 9, 1895; l.

314. v. WINTHROP SURGEON GILMAN ALLEN, the fifth child and eldest son of Caroline Henderson and George W. Allen, was b. in Greenfield, Ill., July 20th, 1837. He resides in Greenfield, Ill.

Winthrop Surgeon Gilman, of Boston, Mass., was a prominent business man of sterling worth, and an exceptional friend to George W. Allen—the eldest son was his namesake. W. S. G. Allen, and younger brother, George Benson Allen, were the assistants of their father in business until