

Methodist Episcopal Church, and her whole life was one of religious usefulness. At sixteen she began teaching in the public schools. Subsequently she attended the State Normal University, and afterward taught a number of years in Greene Co., Ill. Her life, after marriage, was passed in Carrollton. She was always active and efficient in church work, and a leader in the W. C. T. U. and Woman's Foreign Missionary work. Following her death the W. C. T. U. published a beautiful tribute to her memory.

351. vii. GEORGE ROBBINS PRENTICE, the seventh child and third son of Hope Henderson and Rev. Amos Prentice, was b. in Shelbyville, Ill., Aug. 25, 1844; m. Ellen M. Smith, at Ottawa, Kan., Aug. 5th, 1880. They reside near Ottawa, Kan.

For more than ten years they continued to live near Ottawa, engaged in farming. A few years were then passed in Greene Co., Ill., where he was engaged in the mercantile business at Pegram. He returned to his Kansas home and continues his farming business. During the war he served in the Union Army.

[Eighth Generation]. Children:

362. i. William Smith Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., June 18, 1881; l. Ottawa, Kan.
363. ii. Morse Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., Feb. 26, 1883; l. Ottawa, Kan.
364. iii. Blanche Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., Mar. 15, 1884; l. Ottawa, Kan.
365. iv. Mary Elizabeth Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., Oct. 28, 1886; d. Franklin Co., Kan., Nov. 20, 1888.
366. v. Charles Warden Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., July 11, 1888; d. Franklin Co., Kan., Nov. 22, 1888.
367. vi. Hope Maroa Prentice; b. Franklin Co., Kan., June 22, 1890; d. Greene Co., Ill., Feb. 5, 1893.
368. vii. Mabel Sears Prentice; b. Greene Co., Ill., Oct. 12, 1892; l. Ottawa, Kan.
369. viii. ——— ——— (son); b. June, 1896.

353. ix. CHARLES HENDERSON PRENTICE, the ninth child and fifth son of Hope Henderson and Rev. Amos Prentice, was b. in Sullivan, Moultrie Co., Ill., Jan. 9th, 1847; m. Sarah Emily Andrews in Pana, Ill., June 2d, 1869. They reside near Pana, Ill.

He served in the Union Army during the Civil war, and is by occupation a farmer.