

Lucas Counties. Here occurred the marriages of their large family of children, each going to homes of their own. Again, 1872, they moved to Harrison Co., Ia., buying a farm near Reeders Mills, and within two miles of his brother James' home. Here he and his wife now reside, enjoying the fruit of many years of hard toil. He from young manhood has been a member of the M. E. Church, and in politics a Democrat. For many years he was postmaster at Jacksonville, Ia.
