

[Eighth Generation]. Children:

544. i. Hazel Belle Salisbury; b. Estherville, Ia., Sept. 21, 1887; d. Estherville, Ia., Mar. 9, 1891.
545. ii. Frank Edwin Salisbury; b. Estherville, Ia., Apr. 16, 1890; d. Estherville, Ia., Apr. 4, 1891.

307. ix. AMY ANN HENDERSON, the ninth child and fourth dau. of Mary White and James Henderson, was b. on the old family homestead, north of Apple Creek, in Greene County, Ill., Oct. 29th, 1822; m. Thomas J. Robinson, son of John Robinson and Mary Dilleway, of Maine, at her home in Greene Co., Jan. 15th, 1846, the Rev. Hardin Wallace officiating clergyman. She d. in Rock Island, Ill., June 22d, 1895.

Mr. Robinson was at an early period a school teacher in Greene Co., but by trade a cooper in his native State. After their marriage they lived with her aged parents until March, 1848, when they moved to Rock Island Co., Ill., where he had previously purchased land. The journey was overland, and occupied ten days. They lived in the same house with her brother, Perry Henderson, until 1849, when they moved to Port Byron, in the same county. From thence in 1853 to the county seat, Rock Island, where they afterward continuously resided. Through life they were earnest supporters of the cause of Christianity, and loyal members of the M. E. Church. He has been an unusually successful business man, and has largely contributed toward the establishment of the various business enterprises of his city. For the past twenty-six years he has been President of the Rock Island National Bank, and the principal proprietor of the Rock Island and Davenport Ferry Co. Mrs. Robinson in childhood was a Christian convert, and was a most zealous worker in charitable and religious enterprises, to which she liberally contributed through life.

[Seventh Generation]. Children:

546. i. James Franklin Robinson; b. Rock Island Co., Ill., Oct. 29, 1849; m. Mary E. Rhoads, Pekin, Ill., Oct. 29, 1879; l. Rock Island, Ill.
547. ii. John Spencer Robinson; b. Rock Island, Ill., Dec. 4, 1856; d. Rock Island, Ill., July 21, 1859.

546. i. JAMES FRANKLIN ROBINSON, the eldest child of Amy Ann Henderson and Thomas J. Robinson, was b. in Rock Island Co., Ill., Oct. 29th, 1849; m. Mary E. Rhoads, dau.