

318. ix. LUTHER PRENTICE ALLEN, the ninth child and fourth son of Caroline Henderson and George W. Allen, was b. in Greenfield, Ill., March 21st, 1853; m. Jane Ann Ostrom, dau. of Isaac Roberts Ostrom, of Utica, N. Y., and Debora Amy Woolley, of Erie, Pa., then residents of Greenfield, at that place April 15th, 1874, the Rev. James B. Corrington officiating clergyman. They reside in Greenfield, Ill.

Mr. Allen has resided continuously in his native place, excepting while pursuing educational studies at Evanston, Ill., 1868-1872, and Rock Island, Ill., in 1873. He has engaged principally in the mercantile and grain business.

[Eighth Generation]. Children:

340. i. Amy Caroline Allen; b. Greenfield, Ill., Apr. 5, 1875; l. Greenfield, Ill.
 341. ii. Edith Ostrom Allen; b. Greenfield, Ill., Nov. 18, 1876; l. Greenfield, Ill.
 342. iii. Ruby Gray Allen; b. Greenfield, Ill., Mar. 25, 1883; d. Greenfield, Ill., Oct. 22, 1889.
 343. iv. Elsie Jane Allen; b. Greenfield, Ill., Dec. 24, 1885; l. Greenfield, Ill.
 344. v. Harriet Allen; b. Greenfield, Ill., Feb. 2, 1888; l. Greenfield, Ill.

300. ii. HOPE HENDERSON, the second child and second dau. of Mary White and James Henderson, was b. near Circleville, O., Feb. 22d, 1810; m. 1st, Rev. Amos Prentice, son of John O. and Rachel Prentice, of Tioga, N. Y., near Whitehall, Ill., Oct. 12th, 1831. He d. in Shelbyville, Ill., Aug. 17th, 1849; 2d, the venerable Rev. Braxton Parish, in Coles Co., Ill., Dec. 3d, 1874. He d. subsequently. She d. near Coles Station, Ill., on her homestead, Nov. 12th, 1878.

Mrs. Prentice's parents emigrated to Illinois when she was seven years of age, and with them she lived until her marriage to the Rev. Amos Prentice, of the Illinois Conference of the M. E. Church. He was engaged in active ministerial labors many years, only a short time in the mercantile business. She was a true and faithful mother to her family, a friend to the poor and afflicted, and a loyal member of the Methodist Episcopal Church to the last. The end was peace.

[Seventh Generation]: Children:

345. i. William Marion Prentice (twin); b. Whitehall, Ill., July 30, 1832; d. Whitehall, Ill., Dec. 29, 1832.